FROM THE PCC.....

Celebrating the Past, Present and The Future of our Church We are collecting ideas & volunteers for events over the next 2 Yrs up to The Celebration of our Centenary in 2015. Please talk to the Vicar or any member of the PCC if you can help in any way.

Appeal for pennies (1d)

In 1913 the parishioners were trying to save one million pennies to build the New Church. Do you have any old pennies you could donate to The Children's Groups? (please pass to any Children's Leaders). We are hoping to do something creative with them to celebrate The Centenary of The Laying of the Foundation Stone in October.

TWAM

This is a plea from TWAM'S haberdashery dept in Ipswich & Coventry. Each container that they send includes an average of 120 sewing machines, so as you can imagine the sewing bags that are included with every machine need a substantial amount of items. They are desperately short of all haberdashery items in particular cottons, press studs, tape measures. Needles, buttons, needle cases & draw string sewing bags etc, etc, Your help would be appreciated, Please speak to John Tolley

OPEN CHURCH

Thanks to all who have "Church Sat" so far this year. There is a new rota for the remainder of the year, including Heritage Open Days at the back of Church, Please enter your name against any days when you are available & make a note in your own diary. If you have never done it before please have a word with me, it is very straight forward, Many Thanks - Keith
